

Montgomery County Lynching Memorial Project

invites you to the

Mr. George W. Peck Marker Dedication

Program and Reception

Sunday, October 22, 2023 | 3-5 p.m.

Poolesville Presbyterian Church

Outdoors at 17800 Elgin Rd., Poolesville, MD | Reception at Locals Farm Market
Parking is free and clearly marked

Montgomery County Lynching Memorial Project (MoCoLMP) will unveil the first historical marker in the county to acknowledge a racial terror lynching.

Mr. George Peck was murdered by a mob in Poolesville in 1880, one of three lynchings that took place in our county.

Free and open to all

In case of rain, the event will be indoors at Poolesville Memorial United Methodist Church, 17821 Elgin Rd.

Register at:

bit.ly/peck-marker
to receive updates

Remembering is Resistance
MoCoLMP
Montgomery County Lynching Memorial Project

Sign up to receive MoCoLMP's News at bit.ly/mocolmp-news

To get involved, email: mocolynchingmemorial@gmail.com

www.mocolmp.org

 MontgomeryCountyLynchingMemorialProject

 mocolmp

